Social Media That Works, While You Work

We understand that accountants need content that is not only informative but also drives engagement and builds trust with clients. That's why our social media posts are designed to highlight your expertise while making complex topics accessible to your audience.

Our done-for-you service ensures your social media and marketing stay consistent, relevant, and effective all year long—without the hassle!

Our tailored posts on accounting topics like tax savings, property ownership, and succession planning are designed to engage your existing clients and attract new leads. We handle the content, design and scheduling, and all you have to do is review and sign off on each month's content before it goes live.

Let your marketing work for you, get started today with Design Counts!

Plan: We choose a relevant theme for the month that aligns with your firm's goals

Create: We design tailored social media posts on the selected topic

Approve: Review and approve the content before it goes live

Publish: We schedule & post the approved content to keep your social media consistent

Consistent, High-Quality Social Content

Each month, we create professionally designed posts that align with accounting trends and client needs.

- Tax & Financial Tips – Visual guides explaining Tax Reliefs, Allowable Expenses, and Financial Planning strategies.
- Business Growth Insights – Posts covering Business Finance, Credit Scores, and funding options.
- Client Education – Engaging visuals breaking down Pensions, Staff Benefits, and Company Rewards.
- Brand Awareness & Lead Generation – Professional, on-brand posts positioning your firm as a trusted expert.

Collaborate, Customise, Schedule-All in Canva

Ready to streamline your design process? We use Canva's collaborative platform to ensure your designs are easily accessible to you and your team.

We'll incorporate your brand's voice, style, and colours into Canva, then handle the entire design process to create your custom graphics, all within one easy-to-access platform.

The best part? Scheduling made simple! After creating the posts, we'll link your social media account to Canva and schedule directly from the platform—no extra tools required!

Each month, we'll send over a preview of your content calendar for review and approval, ensuring everything aligns with your brand and goals before going live. You maintain control while we take care of the rest.

"Design counts have been fantastic from start to finish with our brand refresh. I'm not creative so I really relied upon him to take my very basic vision and bring it to life. They put together a vibrant new brand image whilst keeping a nod to the old.

Prompt, efficient and professional in everything they do and deliver on-time (or often ahead of time) and to a high quality.

I would recommend Design counts to anyone looking for graphic design support - they have stepped in like a member of the core team."

NICOLA SORRELL
FOUNDER | EFFECTIVE ACCOUNTING

"They were really approachable and supportive throughout our whole experience and listened to our requirements and nailed them in the design, going over and above to provide the right templates to give us flexibility with our materials.

Great communication throughout and continued support once the project had finished. Thank you so much for your help - greatly appreciated."

CLAIRE JOHNSON
EXECUTIVE BUSINESS AND MARKETING SUPPORT | VALUED

"They produce amazing work, always on brand and went the extra mile for our needs. We needed brochure design completed at short notice for an event. Not only did he pull out all the stops to get it done on time for our printers, the work was amazing! Everyone at the event commented on how well our brochures looked.

We will defo be working with Design counts on an ongoing basis."

KIERAN PHELAN
SATORI ACCOUNTING

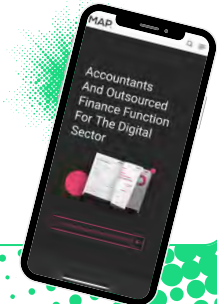

"It is always beneficial to work with service providers that know your sector and Design counts know the accountancy sector inside out.

I am so pleased with the work they have done for us. It makes our brand stand out and get attention in a crowded market."
